

Name: _____

Date: _____

Class: _____

World Religions

Part 1: Label the picture with the given word in the box. Then, complete the sentence.

1. The book describes a symbolic _____, where the character starts a new life after suffering.
2. Different cultures have different _____, and these beliefs often influence their traditions and holidays.
3. Lighting candles and saying prayers is an important religious _____ in many cultures.
4. In ancient times, criminals were sometimes _____ in public as a warning to others.

religion

crucify

resurrection

ritual

Part 2: Write 4 sentences with the given words.

1. religion _____

2. crucify _____

3. resurrection _____

4. ritual _____

Name: _____

Date: _____

Class: _____

Phrasal verbs

Part 1: Match the phrasal verbs with their meanings.

- | | | |
|--|---|------------|
| 1. To disappoint someone | • | • let down |
| 2. To become less intense or severe | • | • let off |
| 3. To allow someone to go without punishment | • | • let go |
| 4. - To release or stop holding something
- To dismiss or fire someone from a job | • | • let up |

Part 2: Complete each sentence with the verb in the box and a preposition to make a phrasal verb. Remember to use the correct tense.

let	up	down	off	go
-----	----	------	-----	----

1. Please don't _____ me _____ tomorrow. I really need your help.
2. The police _____ her _____ because it was her first mistake.
3. The company had to _____ several workers last year.
4. The pain finally _____ after taking medicine.
5. You should _____ of the past and move on.

Part 3: Write your own sentences for each phrasal verb : let up, let down, let off, let go

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____